

Youth Advisory Group George Town

Expression of Interest Form

The Our Futures Project are on the search for young people aged 12-25 to be part of George Town's newest Youth Advisory Group. Interested young people are passionate about representing young people about issues, concerns and opportunities that can be generated at a local government level, whilst having a finger on the pulse of broader opportunities. The group will meet fortnightly, Wednesdays at the Launchpad, having opportunities to connect with Local Council leaders and helping shape a positive future for local young people.

Name

School

Email/Phone

Reason why I want to be part of a youth advisory group:

If I could bring a positive change to George Town, I would...

What I can offer to the group is....

Any other relevant info that could be useful?

Successful applicants will be provided a parental consent form including an information pack. For more information or to submit your form, email to andrew.beeston@georgetown.tas.gov.au