George Town Council and Launceston Athletic Club

5km Family Fun Run

The George Town Council | Launceston Athletic Club will be holding its Australia Day Fun Run on Sunday 26th January 2014.

The Fun Run is free to all participants and will commence at 11.30am from the Low Head Pilot Station Precinct. All participants must register to be eligible to enter. (Note: late entries will be taken on the day at 11.00am). Registration forms are to be returned to Council's Community Events Officer; details below.

The course will be from the Low Head Pilot Station, heading towards the Lighthouse, back along Low Head Road, and finishing back at the Pilot Station. Course officials will be placed along the route to guide runners and for traffic control.

An Australia Day medallion will be presented to the first junior male and female competitor, and the first male and female senior competitor. All participants will receive an Australia Day Certificate of Participation.
